

Getting about London.

Guess what it means...

1. This part of London is the heart of the West End. It is famous for its French, Italian and Chinese restaurants.

2. If you want to see the Horse Guards go to ...

3. Lord Mayor's official residence is called...

4. this is a fashionable shopping street with several well-known stores.

5. Visitors from all parts of the world can usually be seen grouped here.

This is also an extremely busy traffic centre and visitors are advised to use the "lower deck", - which contains shops and underground railway booking offices, - when crossing from side to side..

6. Here you can see more than 6000 animals and birds

7. The most important church in Britain is ...

8. The official residence of each Prime Minister of England for the last 200 years is ...

9. Here Lord Mayor welcomes distinguished guests on the Lord Mayor's Show day.

10. Here various orators hold forth on an astonishing variety of subjects before an audience.

11. This building contains immensely valuable collections; besides it is one of the largest libraries in the world.

12. St. Mary-le-Bow's Church, St. James's Church St. Paul's Cathedral and other masterpieces were built by this architect.

13. Here you can see London's vast financial system at work.

14. It used to be a prison and a Zoo at the same time for many centuries.

15. It is the district of well-to-do people, expensive hotels and department stores.

